

It's Up to You

Who're you going to need to stand beside you when you're out there on your own?

When nobody else is looking out for you and you've never felt more alone?

When the world is cold, there's no hand to hold

And nobody's coming ~~enough~~ enough?

It's down to you

It's down to you

It's down to you .....

Who's going to lift you up, or help you down?

Who's going to keep you warm or hand you a crown?

There's choices to be made, and whether you're going to give or take

That's down to you,

That's down to you

That's down to you.....

What's going to happen if all your plans are trashed into the ground?

When nobody did what you expected them to, and now they're not even around?

When the world fell flat right into your lap

And now you don't know what to do

It's up to you

It's up to you

It's up to you

Who's going to walk beside you or bring you back?

Who's going to help you fight off the next attack?

You're going to have to choose, and whether you're likely to win or lose

That's up to you

That's up to you

That's up to you

Whose door are you going to chap upon when you don't know where to turn?

When everything is locked and silent, what are you going to do then?

When the message on your phone is "We've gone home,

Cos we don't know what to do"

It's up to you

It's up to you

It's up to you

Who's going to plead your case who's going to smooth your way?

Who can you be certain of day by day?

You need to decide, only you know what's inside
